The Gospel of Luke

Chapter 2

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of these things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was in the days of Her'od, the king's a certain priest named Zach-ary, and his wife was of had seen a vision in the temple: to unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that those days of his ministration were at an end, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife conceived, and hid herself five months.

25 Thus hath the Loan days wherein he looked on, and reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month an angel was sent from God unto a virgin named Naz'a-reth,

27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the tribe of Judah; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came unto her, and said, Greet thou, O Mary, favoured of God.
