The Gospel of Luke

Chapter 1

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us.

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus.

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was in the days of Her'od, the king's a certain priest named Zach-ary, and his wife was of had seen a vision in the temple: to unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that those days of his ministration were at an end, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife conceived, and hid herself five months.

25 Thus hath the Loan days wherein he looked on, no reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month an angel was sent from God unto a virgin named Naz'a-reth,

27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the tribe of Judah; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came

Author

Theophilus

Luke 1:3-4

The author of Luke addresses the "most excellent" Theophilus. The earliest record of a "Theophilus" is Theophilus of Antioch who was an early Christian patriarch, a second century Syrian bishop who sought to promote a moralistic form of Christianity, and wrote around 180-185 AD
